"Promoting School Improvement for International Schools Through Accreditation"

January 18, 2017

Protocol for Cooperation

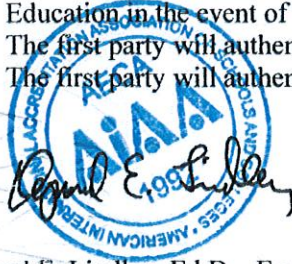

This protocol is between American Accreditation Association of Schools and Colleges (AIAA), Located at 50 East 42nd Street, Suite 2000, New York, NY 10017-5405, United States of America (herein referred to as the First Party) and New Discovery International School, El Mariouteya, Haram, Giza, Egypt, (herein referred to as the Second Party).

AIAA is:

1. One of the premier American education accrediting agencies that accredits public and private schools worldwide.
2. Offers accreditation systems to education providers around the world and is dedicated to increasing education quality.
3. Establishes rigorous quality standards and validates the educational quality of schools through on-site reviews conducted by trained volunteer evaluators. In addition to meeting rigorous standards, schools accredited by AIAA are committed to continual improvement through strategic planning and can be trusted to provide students with the educational services promised.
4. Provides worldwide recognition of each school's quality, accountability, and trustworthiness. Schools that meet AIAA standards on quality education earn accreditation. Maintaining accreditation is conditioned by engagement in continuous improvement to assure high performance.
